Jane Kwok-Yee Leung

LMFT, SEP

I am a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and Somatic Experiencing Practitioner. My educational background includes a BA in Social Work from the Chinese University of Hong Kong and a MA in Counseling Psychology from the California Institute of Integral Studies.

I have worked in many different mental health settings including psychiatric inpatient units, partial hospitalization programs, intensive case management programs and mental health outpatient clinics. Throughout my years of practice as a mental health therapist, I have served clients with different levels of psychiatric and mental health needs.

I am fluent in English and Cantonese. I have almost two decades of experience as a social worker and psychotherapist providing mental health treatment and services to clients in both Hong Kong and the United States.
